Dear Sir,

NATIONAL SERVICE ACTS

Your application for deferment of call-up has been considered by the University Joint Recruiting Board and it has been decided that deferment may be granted until 30 to enable you to take a course of full-time study in Business Administration at Imperial College.

At the end of this period, your case will be reviewed without further application from you. Provided you have made satisfactory progress in your studies, deferment will be continued to enable you to proceed with your course.

If for any reason you discontinue your studies or make any alteration in your course of full-time study or college, or change your address, you should inform me without delay.

You should complete and return the tear-off portion of this letter, duly countersigned, immediately you enter college.

Yours faithfully,

MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND NATIONAL SERVICE

Dear Sir,

Reference is made to your letter dated 2nd August, 1959. It would be appreciated if, at your earliest convenience, you would call at this office at 8.45 a.m. any weekday except Saturday, bringing with you Form N.S.1 and if possible, the date and place of birth of your parents.

In your own interest you should make a point of reporting here as soon as possible because, unless you are called up by 1st September, we will be unable to consider you for the next Linguist Course.

Yours faithfully,
